

MARK YOUR CALENDAR!

Annual Clinical Day in Family Medicine

Wednesday, May 14, 2014
Four Points by Sheraton, London, Ontario
8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

NOTICE NEW VENUE**

Key Note Address:

"Guidelines – How they don't apply to Family Medicine"

Key Note speaker: Dr. G. Michael Allan
Associate Professor, Department of Family Medicine, University of Alberta
Director, Evidence-Based Medicine Program
Popular speaker at the College's Annual Scientific Assemblies
Author, Tools for Practice, Canadian Family Physician

Morning Clinical Topics

- Dental/Oral Health
- 5 Things you need to know about Addiction and Harm Reduction
- 5 Changes in the DSM 5
- 5 Things that the Family Physician needs to know about Bariatric Surgery patients

Afternoon Workshop Program

Choose 2 workshops to attend.....

- Clinical Issues in Family Medicine
- Opioid Prescribing/Cannabinoids
- Autism/ADHD
- Common Hand Injuries
- Female Urinary Incontinence

A Power Breakfast will precede Annual Clinical Day at 7:15 a.m.

Topic: Frequently Occurring Headaches

(Sponsored by Allergan, Inc.)

For more details, watch for the full program brochure in your mail in March. Need more information? Contact Sheena Blasing, Event Coordinator, Citywide Department of Family Medicine, (519) 646-6000 Extension 64884 or email: sheena.blasing@sjhc.london.on.ca