

London Health Sciences Centre
And
St. Joseph's Health Care London

Delineation of Procedural Privileges

Department of Oncology

Category	Privileges	Educational/Experience Requirements
A	All activities and procedures generally performed by physicians trained and certified in the specialty of Radiation Oncology or subspecialties of Haematology or Medical Oncology.	Specialty Certification from the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada in Radiation Oncology or subspecialty certification in Haematology or Medical Oncology, or an Academic Certificate from the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario.
C	Privileges granted to physicians not certified in the specialty, but who have experience, training or and demonstrated competence. For example, Associate Oncologists and General Practitioners. Oncologists and Practitioners in this category may: Provide the general medical care of a cancer patient including pain control or management of treatment related side effects.	Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada or Canadian College of Family Practice Certified in Family Medicine (or equivalent), or Internal Medicine (or equivalent).
CA	Those in a clinical assistant role with Oncology: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Only work under the direct supervision of a current ACTIVE Professional Staff member in Critical Care and may NOT be the most responsible physician; • May write orders; • May assist in the provision of on-call coverage. 	Hold a valid Independent Certificate of Registration or Restricted Certificate of Registrations with CPSO.