

Practise with confidence

2017-2018 academic year

Apply now for CMPA membership

As residents and clinical fellows, you are required to have medical liability protection prior to the start of your program.

Residents and clinical fellows

- Avoid delaying the start of your academic program by submitting your CMPA membership application before JULY 1ST, 2017.
- Payment will not be processed until your training program begins.
- It's easy and convenient to apply ONLINE at www.cmpa-acpm.ca.
- Your licence or registration number is not immediately required to apply.

Resuming CMPA membership

- Existing members will automatically have their CMPA protection renewed.
- Visit the "My membership" section of the CMPA website at www.cmpa-acpm.ca to update your membership information.
- Download your proof of membership for your records as of May 16, 2017.

Protecting Canadian physicians

CMPA Physician Advisors are experienced physicians who can provide assistance on a wide range of issues including:

- College complaints
- Privacy investigations
- Disciplinary hearings
- Hospital matters
- General medical legal concerns
- Legal actions/lawsuits

Contributing to safe medical care

CMPA provides extensive educational resources that help protect members and contribute to a safe medical system:

- Medical-legal handbook for physicians in Canada
- Case study videos
- Risk management articles
- CMPA Good Practices Guide
- Symposia and conferences

Apply
now for your medical liability protection

We're here to help.
www.cmpa-acpm.ca

